Union is worth preserving. We don't think our trust in the good sense and patriousm of the masses of the people in the free States is misplaced. Indeed, in the late corflict, the N rok did better than the South. All serie of a, pushe to their sectional ambition, to their prejutices and passions were made, and they man u y resisted. A powerful, unsedneed minori y stood firm in all the free States where sectional passions and prejudice got mejorities. It was at boil but an accidental majority of numbets in many of the States; not a mejority of the real intelligent power of a Commonwealth, which will us the end control the policy of a State. It this couff et, what exploits did the South do? Cortainly she has nothing to boast of. A short time since, the proprietors of the Gra-mercy Bank, Messrs. Nixon & Wheeleck, in order to meet engagements consequent upon the purchase of a large amount of stock in the Bed-lord Branch of the new State Bank, applied to the Auditor for the use of their bends for a few days offering him as security, a bond for their full value, signal by several responsible men of this city, for their safe and promptretu u. The Autitor, with a dorelicition of duty which cannot be too severely reprehended, consented—accepted the profilered seemity, and give up the bonds. These bonds, which amounted to $68,000, were staken to Louisville and used as collaterals for a considerable loan, which was taken to dediced, and de-posited as a part of the capital stock of the new Branch Bank there, required by law to be paid in by the 21st of December ult. Asso n as the Bank commenced business, Mr. Nix m, the President (also irresident of the Gramarcy, and the mana-ger of this little bit of financiering) sent a quan-tity of its notes to Leaisville, to redeom the bonds, in order to restore those to the Auditor, as agreed upon. But the holders declined taking the paper of the new bank, and refused to give the coads up. This circumstance, with other causas, by ught about the crisis in the condition of the Gramercy, under which it secombed.

We learned posterday that some twenty five or thirty thousand deliars of the bonds would be saved, on assount of their not having been to: milly transferred at the Eist, and that they wil so applied to the redesaption of the notes. The circulation of the Gramercy is $31,000 and of the disawnee Bank (a pranch) $12,000 making $43,000 altigather. For whatever deficiency there may be in the stocks, the Auditor and his securities are new responsible as well as the gentlemen who are on Mesers. Nixon & Wheelook's bond, for the return of the bonds. The outstanding circulation of the two banks is therefore pretty secure and we advise helders not to part with it at an,

There are various reports as to the amount of deposits at the Gramercy Bank. They range from five to thirty thousand dellass. They are generativin small annunce, and affect parties wh and upon the builting was apprenended yesterday. We trus any intention of this sort will be immediately abandoned. It could not possibly

THE JEPPERSONVILLE AND NEW ALBANY Banks - We stated yesterday that the branches of the State Bank of Indiana at Jeffersonville and Naw Albany, and the office of the Ohio Inenrance Company of New Albany had been closed. We predicated the item upon a rumor repeated in our presence by more than one individual. Gantlemen known to us, from those cities, who have every means of knowing, and who are entitled to the highest confidence, assure us that there was no foundation for the rumor, and we therefore take this first opportunity to correct the na ortugate publication. The Evening Bulletin, printed at the Journal effice, in this city, asserts very pointedly that we were in error, and volunteers the statement so that there is not the slightest foundation for a remor to that effect." For a writer who knows little or nothing about banking in Indians, this assertion is quite opol and broad. We say (and wo know what we say) that there was a "slight foundation" for the rumor to which we gave publicely, though, for aught wa know, or care, the the ladiana banks are as firm as Gibralter. The knowledge which the editor sees fit to express with such an air of cool confidence was oblained from the officers of this banks themselves, or those interested in their stability; and, while these Cheers and their friends are gentlemen of undoubted honor and probity, disluterested teetimony would be cr.titled to quite as much credit. We are a serv we were led into what seems a prematere appointed and, but we dirike exceedingly to be corrected by those who are proverbielly imporreet themselves.

THEATER -Miss Dors Show grows into one edmiration, the more we see of her, and give: more and more evidences of true talent. Her Pantine, of last night, gave very great pleasureit was extellently rood, and very beautifully rendered. Miss Shaw to rather impulsive at times but that is a fault on the right side, and gives evidence of entering into the character with spirit. Her voice, though rather weak for pasgion, is well suited to a tender goone, being solt and pathetic. It is very sellow we have er j weo the Luly of Lyons better than wa did last night Her perfermance contributed growthy, and that of Hantey also. The other characters were admirably done. To night Miss Shaw will appear as Pastagoia, with Hacley as Ingomer. Miss Waidegrave will dence La Cracovienne, and a neal little farce follow. We hope Miss Shaw will have a good house to-night, ter she deserves it and all who see her will be pleased. Go and judge in yourselves.

BENEFIT OF THE POOR -An entertainment was given at the Metropelitan, in Jeffersonville, Sat urday evening last, by which a handsome sum of money was roulised for the benefit of the poor of that city. Among the volunteers were two young gamilem a of this city of the highest order of mu-ical talent, to whom the citizena of Jeffersonw, le l'esi muca indebted for their contifbutions tthe pleasures of the evening. After the concert an elegant supper was propared and served to a Istre number of guests.

We learn that the ladies of Jefferronville contem; la's another entertainment of a similar charfactor soon. If they will advise us of the precise occasion, we will make the appouncement in our paper. We feel like oncomraging enter prises for sach noble perposes.

Others than the charming little misses of the female department of the Louisville High School, who were so indebted to him for many salutary lessons in other things than mere letters, will remember with subdued emotions of pleasure their dear old friend

PROFESSOR J. B. SPENCER,

Late Principal of that school. The papils will al cumstances called him away from us, and he now resides in Brebester, New York. He is not teach- material. ing young ladies now; and his practical connecable, as the fire was permitted to take its own papers, which is now closing its second volume, the sponding to commercial favors, with an occasional course, many of the campanies being unable. Proprietor has determined to return this numerous of the results of friend of his and curs has recently received one of the latter denomination from him, and, aware of the kindly remembrance in which our tender little female friends hold him, and being informed, for this department of the Democrat, without as much as asking Mr. Spencer's permission to put his name in print, we dedicate an extract from hls latter was soft and dabby, restored to a perfect state of heasit by one bottle.

TO THE PUPILS (F THE LOUISVILLE HIGH SCHOOL Mr. Spencer says: "If I were to select another place in which to reside, it would be Louisville f another school to teach, it would be the Female High School; if a co-laborer in the delightful tack, no other than L E. L.; if the best sot of scholars that ever thirsted for knowledge,or drank in every word that fell from their instructors' lips that same chosen band of faithful pupils, all o whom live in my memory, and whose praises ! often repeat as the best, the pleasantest school ! ever taught. Ah I what pleasure it would afford me to re-visit the old school-house, now rejuvenated, to come is upon you unannounced. I imaglae there would be some hearty greetings; fo: it cannot be that those girls could have forgotter e, or would turn to me a cold shoulder for my abrupt departure. How delighted I should be to receive a letter, a homely, plain-spoken letter, from each of them; or if not from each, from one shom they might select to represent the whole Pieace as are them that they are kladly, grateuliy, affectionately remembered." If some of Professor Holyoke's first class are a little late to chool this morning, or if they have not quite so much Latte, or so many figures at their flogers' ends, as usual, he may know that they have read the Democrat, and that their hearts and memories are somewhat in Bohester. Although not much a poet, we confess we rather liked the 'Spencerona School" currelf. We have no disposition to interfere with any arrangements that he girls may make, but we nominate our sedate ittle friand, Miss B., or the tastoful Miss E., to cply to Mr. Spencer's kind letter. And this reference to these half-divinities calls to mind the kindnesses of a little circle of ladies in this city.

To those who bject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarry and dixinees. Some who have taken it have been cotive for years, and have been regulated by it. When the body is sound, it works quite easy, but where then is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will easie very einguiar feelings, but you must not be siarmed—they always disappear in from four days to week. There is never a had result from it—on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourselike a new person. I heard some of the most extraving anteneomiums of it that ever man listened to.

No change of diet ever necessary. Est the bestyou ean, and enough of it.
